

City of Redmond Planning Commission March 24, 2004 Meeting Summary

Planning Commissioners in Attendance:

Kimberly Allen, Gordon Bluechel, Kate Dunn, Charlie McCarthy, Korby Parnell, Sue Petitpas and Martin Snodgrass

Staff in Attendance:

- Terry Marpert, Gary Lee and Terry Shirk Redmond Planning Department
- Art Sullivan, A Regional Coalition for Housing (ARCH)

Business Conducted:

Chair Martin Snodgrass called the meeting to order at 7:04 p.m.

The agenda was approved.

Chair Snodgrass opened the study session on the Downtown Redmond Element of the Comprehensive Plan. Commissioner Dunn led the study session, and the commissioners reviewed the issues list that was compiled for this meeting. Gary Lee discussed the proposed changes to Downtown Redmond policies.

Chair Snodgrass opened the next study session on the Housing Element. Commissioner Petitpas lead the commission's discussion housing conditions and needs. Art Sullivan made a presentation describing the region's and the City's efforts to define and meet housing needs by referring to data on income and housing type based on household demographics. Mr. Sullivan and Terry Shirk answered questions raised by the commission.

Mr. Marpert reviewed the agenda for the next Planning Commission meeting on March 31st, and reported that Planning Commissioner interviews should begin on the week of April 5th.

The Planning Commission adjourned at 10:11 p.m.